

PROPOSITIONS OF THE

Lords and Commons affembled in Parliament.

at Oxford, by foure Lords, and eight Members of the House of Commons, February 3, 1642.

to, and fix Propositions propounded by Him to both.

Houses, to be debated upon with the rest, at the Treaty.

Ordered by the Lords and Commons that thefe be printed and published.

John Browne Cler. Parl.

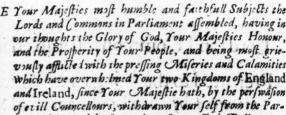

eldmul ol

The humble D. fi es and Propositions of the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled, tendred unto his Majesty

February 1. 1 6 4 2

liament, raised an Army against it, and by force thereof protested Delinquents from the Justice of it constraining us to take Arms for The Defence of our Religion, Lawes, Liberties, Priviledges of Parliament, and for the fitting of the Parliament in safety; which Fears and Dangers are continued and increased by the Raising, Drawing together, and Arming of great numbers of Papists, under the command of the Earle of Newcastle : likewife by making the Lond Herbert of Ragland, and other known Papists, Commanders of great Forces, whereby many grievens Oppressions, Rupines, and Constries have been and are daily exercised upon the Persons and Estates of Your People; much innocent blond hath been spilt, and the Papists have attained means of attempting, with hopes of effecting their mischievous Designe of rooting out the Reformed Religion, and destroying the Profesours thereof. In the tender sense and compassion of these Boills, under which Tour People and Kingdome lie (according to the Duty which we ow: to Go l, Tour Majestie, and the Kingdome for which we are trusted ) Doe most earnestly desire, That an end may be put to these great Distempers and Distractions, for the preventing of that Desolation which doth threaten all Your Majeffies Dominions; And as me have rendred, and fill are ready to render to Tour Majefty that Subjection, Obedisuce and Service which we one unto You, fo me maft humbly befreen Your Majefty to remove the causes of this warre, and to vonabsaffe in that Peace and Protection Which we and our Ancestours have formerly enjoyed under Your Majesty and Tour Royall Predecessours, and graciously to accept una grant these our most humble I That Defires and Propositions.

1. WHat Your Majerty will be pleafed to dispose 1 have raised, and that You would bee pleased to returne to Your Par-

II. That you will leave Delinquents to a legall triall, and judgement of Parliament.

III. That the Papifts may not only be disbanded, but difarmed according to Law.

n

ıd

198

IV. That Your Majesty will be pleased to give Your Royall affent unto the Bill fortaking away superstricious Innovations: To the Bill for the utter abolishing and taking away of all Archbishops, Bishops, their Chancellors and Commissaries, Deans, Subdeans, Deans and Chapvers, Archdeacons, Canons, and Prebendaries, and all Chaunters, Chancellors, Treasurers, Subtreasurers, Succentors, and Sacrists; and all Vicars Chorall, and Choristers, old Vicars and new Vicars of any Cathedrall or Collegiate Church, and all other their under Officers; out of the Church of England: To the Bill against scandalous Ministers: To the Bill against Pluralities: And to the Bill for consultation to be had with Godly, Religious, and Learned Divines. That Your Majesty will be pleased to promise passe such other good Bills for setting of Church-Government, as upon consultation with the assembly of the said Divinesshall beresolved on by both Houses of Parliament, and by them be presented to Your Majesty.

V. That Your Majesty having express in Your Answer to the nineteen Propositions of both Houses of Parliament, an hearty affection and intention for the rooting out of Popery out of this Kingdome, and that if both the Houses of Parliament can yet finde a more effectuall course to disable Jesuiss, Priests, and Popish Reculants from disturbing the State, or deluding the Laws, that You would willingly give Your consent unto it; That You would be graciously pleased for the better discovery and speedien conviction of Recusants, that an Oath may bee established by Act of Parliament, to be administred in such manner as by both Hou'es shall be agreed on, wherein they shall abjure and renounce the Popes Supremacy, the Doctrine of Transubstantiation, Purgatory. Worthipping of the confectated Hoaft, Crucifixes and Images. and the refusing the faid. Oathgo being tendred in such manner as shall be appointed by Act of (Parliament , shall be a sufficient conviction in Law of Recutancy. And that Your Majefty will be graciously pleafed to give Your Royall affent unto a Bill for the Education of the children Penalties against them, and that the same Penalties may be levyed and disposed of in such manner as both Houses of Parliament shall agree only so your Majesty bee at no losse: And likewise to a Bill, whereby the practice of Papists ggainst the State may be prevented, and the Law against them duly executed.

VI. That the Fa le of Briffoll may bee removed from Your Majeflies Councells, and that both he and the Lord Herbert seldest son to the Earl of Werefter, may likewise be restrained from comming within the Verge of the Court; and that they may not beare any Office, or have a ny Imployments concerning State or Common-wealth.

VII. That Your Majesty will be graciously pleased by Act of Parliament to settle the Militia both by Sex and Liand, and for the Forts and Ports of the Kingdome in such a maner as shall be agreed on by both Houles, which is the sex of the se

VIII. That Your Majesty wilbe pleased by Your Letters Patents, to make Sir John Brampston chief Justice of Your court of Kings Bench, William Lenthall Esquire, the now Speaker of the Commons House, Master of the Rolls; and to continue the Lord chief Justice Banks chief Justice of the Court of Commons Pleas, and likewise to make Master Serjeant Wild, chief Baron of your Court of Fxchequer, and that Master Justice Bacon may bee continued, and Master Serjeant Rolles and Master Serjeant Atkins made Justices of the Kings Bench.

That M. Justice Reeves and M. Justice Foster may be continued, and M. Serjeant Phesant made one of the Justices of Your Court of Common Pleas. That M. Serjeant Creswell, M. Samuel Brown, and M. John Puleston may be Barons of the Exchequer; and that all these, and all the Judges of the same Courts for the time to come, may hold their places by Letters Patents under the Great Seal, Quam din se bene gesserint: And that the severall persons not before named, that doe hold any of these places before mentioned, may be removed.

IX. That all such persons as have been put out of the Commissions of Peace or Oyer and Terminer, or from being Custodes Rotulerum, since the first day of April 1642. (other then such as were put out by defire of both, or either of the Houses of Parliament) may againe be put into those Commissions and Offices, and that such persons may be put out of those Commissions and Offices, as shall be excepted against

X. That Your Majesty will be pleased to passe the Bill now presented to your Majesty, to vindicate and secure the Priviledges of Parliament from the ill consequence of the late President in the charge and proceeding against the Lord Kimbolion, now Earle of Manchester, and the five Members of the House of Commons.

I XI. That your Majesties Royall affent may be given unto such Acts as shall be advised by both Houses of Parliament, for the satisfying and paying the Debts, and Damages, wherein the two Houses of Parliament have engaged the publique Faith of the Kingdome.

XII. That your Majesty will be pleased according to a gracious answer heretosoftere served from you, to enter into a more strict. Alliance with the States of the United Provinces, and other neighbour Princes and States of the Protestant Religion, for the defence and maintenance thereof against all designes and attempts of the Popish and Jesuiticall Faction to subvert and suppresse it, whereby your Subjects may hope to bee free from the mischieses which this Kingdome hath endured, through the power which some of that party have had in your Council, and will be much encouraged in a Parliamentary way, for your aid and affistance in restoring your Royall Sister and the Prince Elector to those Dignities and Dominions which belong unto them, and the relieving the other distressed Protestant Princes, who have suffered in the same cause.

13 That in the Generall pardon that your Majesty buth been pleased to offer to your Subjects, all offences and missemeanours, committed before the tenth of Ianuary 1 64 1. which have been or shall be questioned or proceeded against in Parlrament, upon complaint in the House of Commons, before the tenth of Ianuary, 1 64 3. shall be excepted, which offences and missemeanours shall neverthelesse be taken and adindged to be fully discharged against all other inferiour Courts; That likewise there shall be an exception of all offences committed by any person or persons which hath or have had any hand or practise in the Rebellion of Ireland, which hath or have given any Counsell, Assistance or Encouragement on the Rebells there, for the maintenance of that Rebellion, as likewise an exception of William Earle of Newcastle and George Lord Digby.

14 That your Majesty will be pleased to restore such Members either House of parliament to their severall places of Service and parliament, that they may receive fatisfaction and reputation for those places, and for the profits which they have lost by factor removall, upon the petition of both Houles of parliament. And that all others may be refored to their Offices and Imployments, who have been pur outsoft the fame upon any displeasure conceived against them for any affishance given to both Houses of parliament, or obeying their Commands, or forbearing to leave their attendance upon the parliament without licence, or for any other occasion arising from these unhappy differences betwint your Majesty and both Houses of parliament, upon the like petition of both houses.

A 3

These things being granted and performed, as it hash alwaiss beene our bearty prayer, so shall we be enabled to make it our hopefull endeavour; thus your Majesty and your people may enjoy the blessings of peace, truth, and justice; the Royatty and greatnessed your I brone may be supported by the Loyall and bountifull affections of your people, their Liberties, and priviledges maintained by your Majesties protection and suffice, and this publique bonour and happinessed by your Majesty; undustryour Dominions, communicated to other Churches and 38 ares of your alliance, and derived to your Royall posterity, and the fature generalisms in this Kingdome for ever.

His Majesties Answer to the Petition.

This Majestie had not viven up all the faculties of his feul to an earnest endeavour I of a Peace and Reconciliration with his People, or if he would fuffer himselfe by any provocation to be drawne to a fear penoffe of Language at a time when abers fremes Comerchat like an Overture of Accommodation, be could not but refeat the beavis charges upon him in the preamble of their Propositions, and would not suffer him-Telfe to be reproached with protecting of delinquents, by force from fultice (his Majesties desire hath alwaies been, that all men should be tried by the knowne Law, and having been refused it) with raising an Army against his Parliament, and to be told that Armes have beene taken up against him for defence of Religion, Lawes, Liberties, priviledges of Parliament, and for fitting of the Parliament in fafety, with maother particulars in that presable, to after and fofully unfresed by his Majelly, is bout remembring the worldit the time and circumstances of raising these Armes avairiff him, when his Mujeshidanas fo far from being in a condition to invade other mens Right's , that he was not able to maintaine and defend his owne from willence, ind wishom telling his good Subjects that their Religion (the true Protestant Reliun in which his Majesty was borne, hath faithfully lived, and to which he will dye line factifice, their Lawes, Estretties, Priviledges, and safety of Purliament were fo amply feeled and established, on offered to be fo by his As ajefty before my was raifed against him, & long before any raifed by him for his d feme that i thing had been defired but that peace and protection which his Subjects and their A ceftors had in the best times enjoyed mader bis Maje sty , or his Royall Predes for this mif-under tranding and distance between his Majesty and his people, and thus as nexall mifery and d straction upon the face of the whole Kingdome, had not been new the discounte of Christendame, but his Mansty will forbeare annexpressions of ba carneffe, or of a fense of his owne sufferings, that if is be possible, the memory thereo may be lost to the morld, and therefore though many of the Prapositions, presented to bis Majefty by hoth Houses, appeare to him very dengatory from, and deferallive to bis just Power and Prerogative, and no way beneficiall to his Subjects, few of them being already due to them by the Lawes established (and how naparliamentary it is by momes to require nem Lairs, all the Worldweny judge ) net because the famor bee waved on molificational many that exert on danke on doubtfull in them cleared and explained (upon debate ) this Majesty in pleased to Juch is his sease of the miseries the Kingdomet suffern by shis unwas weall war and hie carne ft define to remove the a bappy Pence That a spacky time nied place be agreed upon, for the meeting of Per four achie Majefer and host Hausen findl appoint, to discusse these Propos and fach unbers bere following, he his chil mieft y dot h propose to them.

1. That his Majesties own Revenue, Magazines, Towns, Forts, and Ships, which have been taken or kept from him by force, bee forth with restored unto him.

2. That whatfoever hath been done or published contrary to the knowne Lawes of the Land, and derogatory to his Majesties legals and knowne Power and rights, be renounced and recalled; That no seed may remaine for the like to Ipring out of for the future.

3. That whatfoever illegall Power hath been claimed and exercised by cover his Subjects, as imprisoning their persons without Law, stopping their Habeau Corpusses, and imposing upon their Estates without Act of Parliament, &c. either by both or either House, or any Committee by both or either, or by any persons appointed by any of them, be disclaimed; and all such persons fo committed, forthwith discharged.

4. That as his Majesty will readily consent (having done so heretofore to the execution of all Laws already made, & to any good Acts to the made for the suppressing of Popery, and for the firme settling of the Protestant Religion now established: So here desires that a good Bill may bee framed for better preserving of the Booke of Common prayer from the scorne and violence of Browniss, Anabaptists, and other Sections, with such clauses for the ease of tender consciences, as his Majesty hath formerly offense

5. That all such persons as upon the Treaty shall bee excepted but of the generall pardon, shall be tried per pares, according to the usual course knowne Law of the Land, and that it be left to that either to accompany on demnothem.

fully agreed upon and defire of his Majesty he hopes will be so cheerfully enterfained and blessed peace may be accomplished, if it shall be rejected and blessed peace may be accomplished, if it shall be rejected in filting upon unreasonable circumstances, be made impossible, topes God in his mercy to this Nation will not suffer) the guile of which will be shed, and the desolation which must follow, will he ads of the resulters.

er, his Majelty is resolved, through what accidents soever hee impelled to recover his Right, & with what prosperous successed do lipleate God to blesse him, that by his earnest constant endeavours to and promote the true Protestant Religion, and by his government to the known lawes of the land, and upholding the just priviple limited, according to his frequent protestations made before God, which he will alwayes inviolably observe, the world hit he hath undergone all these difficulties and hazards for the demaintenance of these. The zealous preservation of which, his Makinowes, is the onely soundation and meanes for the true happing and his people.

... That his Majelles own Revenue, Masovines, Todos, tealed whick have been taken or kept from him of three, beet with with FINIS.

That what doeser had been done or published come a vso the lawes of the Land, and done patery to his state ties legalland, low wer and rights, be remained in a recalled; That he teld and were the like to toring out of for the finure.

's 'That what too verifies all Power hat heer claimed and a verta over his Subjects, as mapping in their part of with our lave, we shalked Corpusses without Affect Plate, we can corpusse by both or either House, or any Commutee by both or of by any performanced, and all the committeed, for the with discharged.

4. That as his Majelly will readily confent (have adone to to to the execution of all Laws already mide, & to any good ACL to the fuppirelling of Papery, and for the firme feeling of the Processor now established: So hee defires that a good Bis may beet air better preserving of the Booke of Common prayer from the tomestone of Propagality, Anabapsife, and other Sectaries. With high the color tender conscience, as his Majelly hach so.

t. That all rich persons as even the Treaty shall bee except nerall person, stall be tried or parer, recording to the latest need out of the Land, and that excelete to that of these